

Commissioner Dana Barrett's

CONNECT THE DOTS

FAMILY LEARNING WORKSHOP

Does your child have the technology they need to succeed at school and beyond?

The Connect the Dots Family Learning Workshop, powered by Inspiredu, Comcast, and the Fulton County Libraries, provides a free laptop, software, and training to get you started, along with help getting you connected to free or low cost internet.*

Saturday, January 20th
11AM - 1PM

(Check-in starts at 10AM)

LEARN HOW YOUR FAMILY CAN
CONNECT TO FREE
OR LOW COST
INTERNET SERVICE!

LOCATION
Fulton County
Central Library
One Margaret Mitchell
Square, Atlanta, GA
30303

JOIN US FOR

- FREE FOOD
- FREE LAPTOP
- EDUCATIONAL GAMES
- AND MORE...

TO REGISTER - USE THE QR CODE OR CLICK

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/fultonlibjan20>

Need Help Registering? Have Questions? Call or Text (404) 496-8581

This program is for qualifying families with a student in 3rd, 4th or 5th grade. Parents must register and attend WITH THEIR CHILD for the FULL 2 hour session to earn their laptops.*

